

COOKIES POLICY

The services provided on www.centrinocapital.com are provided by Centrino Capital Ltd., a company incorporated under the laws of Saint Lucia, with license number 2025-00708, regulated by the Financial Services Regulatory Authority (FSRA) Saint Lucia as a trading broker for over-the-counter derivatives contracts and foreign exchange spot markets and trading broker in the international markets.

Over-the-counter margined derivative contracts including contracts for difference and spot foreign exchange are complex instruments. They come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage. You should understand how these products work, and whether you can afford to incur losses and have the appropriate risk appetite. We recommend you seek professional advice before investing.

Welcome to Our Cookies Policy

1. Understanding Cookies and Their Role in Your Online Experience

Cookies are small data files that websites ask permission to store on your device. Once accepted, they help track website activity and let businesses know when you've visited specific pages. This allows websites to tailor your experience, such as remembering your preferences or showing you relevant content.

At Centrino Capital Ltd. (the “Company”), we use cookies to enhance your browsing experience. They help us understand which pages are most useful to you and allow us to customize the site to better suit your needs. Rest assured, our cookies do not run software, spread viruses, or compromise your device’s security.

We use cookies to support essential site functions, analyse usage patterns, and deliver marketing content that aligns with your interests. Your privacy matters to us, and we provide tools to help you manage your cookie preferences easily.

1. How We Use Cookies to Improve Your Experience

At Centrino Capital Ltd., we use cookies to ensure our website runs smoothly and delivers a personalized experience. These cookies help us provide our services efficiently and are grouped into the following categories:

1.1. Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They support key features such as site navigation, account applications, remembering your login details, live chat, and other core services. If you disable these cookies, some parts of our platform may not work as intended.

1.2. Analytical Cookies

Analytical cookies help us understand how visitors use our website. By analyzing usage patterns, we can improve site performance and tailor content to better match your preferences and behavior.

1.3. Marketing Cookies

Marketing cookies allow us to share relevant content with you on third-party websites and measure the effectiveness of our marketing campaigns. We follow industry standards to ensure your data is anonymized and never used to personally identify you.

Please note: If you choose to decline marketing cookies, some features and personalized content may not be available during your visit.

2. What Our Cookies Do (and Don't Do)

To help you better understand how cookies work on our website, here's a clear breakdown of what they do and what they don't do:

- i. They do not store sensitive personal information like passwords.
- ii. They do not access other files or data stored on your device.
- iii. They do not compromise your device's security or performance.
- iv. They do enable secure access to your trading accounts.
- v. They do help us monitor website traffic and user behavior to improve your experience.
- vi. They do identify how users arrive at our site (e.g., via search engines or email links).
- vii. They do collect technical details such as your location and browser type to optimize site performance.
- viii. They do allow us to show relevant ads on other websites to users who've previously visited ours.
- ix. They do deliver personalized content based on your browsing activity.
- x. They do remember your settings and preferences to make your visits smoother and more tailored.

3. Managing Your Cookie Preferences

When you visit our website, you have the option to accept or decline cookies. Most browsers accept cookies by default, but you can adjust your browser settings at any time to block or remove them if you prefer.

To learn more about how to manage cookies across different browsers, we recommend visiting aboutcookies.org.

Please note: Choosing to decline cookies may limit certain features and reduce the overall functionality of our website.

For more information on how we handle your personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact us at infodesk@centrinocapital.com.
